CRITICAL JUNCTURE

Intersections of race, sexuality, gender, and disability

CONFERENCE 2019

TRANSLATING ACROSS BOUNDARIES

Come enjoy panel discussions and hands-on workshops about the process and the result of interdisciplinary work!

Keynote Speakers:
Dr. Teresa Blankmeyer Burke
Gallaudet University

Jamica Zion
Emory University

When?
April 5-6, 2019

Where?
Emory University
Psychology & Interdisciplinary Sciences Building (PAIS)

How Much?
Free to Attend!

www.criticaljunctureconference.wordpress.com

Critical Juncture 2019 is sponsored by the following organizations: The Institute for Liberal Arts; The Stuart A. Rose Manuscript and Rare Book Library; The Hightower Fund; The Disability Studies Initiative; The James Weldon Johnson Institute for the Study of Race and Difference; The Laney Graduate Student Council; The Psychoanalytic Studies Program; The Global and Postcolonial Studies Program; The Center for the Study of Human Health; The Center for Mind, Brain, and Culture; The Bill and Carol Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry, and the Emory Departments of Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, Spanish and Portuguese, Anthropology, Sociology, English, Film and Media Studies, Neuroscience and Behavioral Biology, Religion, Jewish Studies, Theatre and Dance, Psychology, and Philosophy.